Yorkshire Dales
Lake District

A few minutes walk from the centre of the quaint cobbled village of Dent in the Yorkshire dales, this superb detached stone holiday cottage commands an excellent position with magnificent views across Dentdale. Incorporating many features, exposed beams and natural stone work, the Yorkshire dales holiday cottage offers spacious accommodation which is decorated and furnished in a contemporary style to an exceptionally high standard. A large patio with fabulous views is perfect for relaxing and reflecting on the day's activities, and for alfresco dining on a warm summer evening, with lambs gamboling in the adjacent field in the Spring. Set in the heart of the Yorkshire Dales National Park Dentdale is the smallest and probably the loveliest Yorkshire dale with pretty riverside walks and country lanes, with footpaths leading to the Yorkshire Dales hills and fells from the doorstep. The Three Peaks of Ingleborough, Pen-y-Ghent and Whernside stand proud for the more adventurous. Dent has everyday shopping, tearooms, craft shops and country inns serving meals. The Settle - Carlisle Railway stops at Dent Station and the whole of the Yorkshire Dales and Lake District are within easy reach.

Sue & Mike - N. Wales

Wonderful cottage in a beautiful location, just what we needed for a relaxing holiday. Spoilt for choice with walks from the doorstep and have hardly used the car. We are already planning our return.

M. Simmons/G. Toland - Dundee

What a great cottage, everything you could need and a fantastic location and the view from this garden has got to be the best in Dent. We enjoyed the Dent Heritage Centre, lovely walks up to Flintegill and High House and Aysgarth Falls makes a good day out.

Miss Blud - Lancashire

Had a fantastic week in lovely Dentdale. The cottage is incredible, the best we have stayed in throughout the UK. We had a lovely time staying in and visiting Hawes and Sedbergh. Lovely walks, good food at the Sun Inn and the George and Dragon (both dog friendly).

Mr & Mrs Didgiunaitis from Sowerby Bridge

What a wonderful cottage, everything we could have asked for and more. We will be back!

Mr Derek Martin - Cheshire

The property couldn't have been better - the Christmas tree was lovely and everything was in absolute first class order..thank you.
